

SUB PARLIAMENT FOR ULSTER, PLAN OF THE SINN FEIN

Insist, However, That Chief Authority Rest in Single Irish Council.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The Sinn Fein does not object to a local Parliament in Ulster, even with large powers, it was explained at their headquarters here today, but that Parliament must be part of a single Irish system and the chief authority in Ireland must be a single Irish Parliament. The proposal credited to Ulster for the setting up of separate dominions in Ireland was wholly unacceptable to the Sinn Fein, it was declared, and no chance existed of any compromise on it. Lord Middleton, who represents the non-partisan Unionists of Northern Ireland, had a conference this morning with Premier Lloyd George and other members of the Cabinet for the purpose of laying the views of this group before the Government. The initiative in the negotiations is again in the hands of Prime Minister Lloyd George, the counter-proposals made by the Ulster Cabinet members having been rejected last night by the British delegates. No further meeting of the British and Irish delegates has been arranged, but the negotiations have entered upon a stage which it is thought will lead to extended conferences, covering, perhaps, several months time.

The Sinn Fein delegates, who went to Ireland over the week-end, were back in London today. Their visit and their talks with Eamon De Valera were not in connection with the London conference, as to which a definite line of policy was fixed long ago, it was explained, but with details of the work of their departments in the Dublin Administration at home.

BETRAYAL CHARGED BY ULSTER LEADER

Minister of Labor Says North Will Not Accept United Irish Parliament.

BELFAST, Nov. 15.—(Associated Press.) J. M. Andrews, Minister of Labor in the Ulster Cabinet, upon his return to Belfast from London this morning issued the following statement: "A disingenuous betrayal of Ulster has been attempted by the Coalition Cabinet. The suggestion has been made that we should agree to a Parliament for all Ireland with dominion powers. We have informed His Majesty's Government that we are not prepared to admit the ascendancy of any Parliament other than the Imperial Parliament over ours or to agree to its reserved services being transferred to a Parliament for all Ireland, which undoubtedly would be controlled by those who are enemies of the empire."

"In the interests of peace, which every right thinking person desires, we accepted a Parliament of our own as a compromise and final settlement. It is for our opponents, if they desire peace, to accept and work their Parliament in Southern Ireland in the same spirit, with the object of producing a happy, prosperous, peaceful and loyal Ireland. The Ulster representatives will not agree to any surrender of their rights."

CROWN PRINCE SOON TO BE JAPAN REGENT

Councils of State Consider Move in View of Mikado's Long Ill-Health.

TOKYO, Nov. 15.—(Hirohito, Crown Prince of Japan, may soon be made Regent, with practically all the powers of Emperor, it was learned on highest authority here today. Some think Hirohito's regency will have commenced before the Washington Conference to six weeks old. This action, now being considered in councils of state, will result from ill health of the Emperor, who for more than a year has been unable to perform many functions of his position. An official bulletin from the Imperial household department some weeks ago announced a grave state of health, but the people were told not to become alarmed. Since then the newspapers have been silent concerning the Mikado.
